

Role of Title VI in Home and Community-Based Long-Term Care

Yvonne Jackson, PhD

Director, Office for American Indian,
Alaskan Native and Native Hawaiian Programs

Administration on Aging

Indian Tribal Organizations (Title VI)

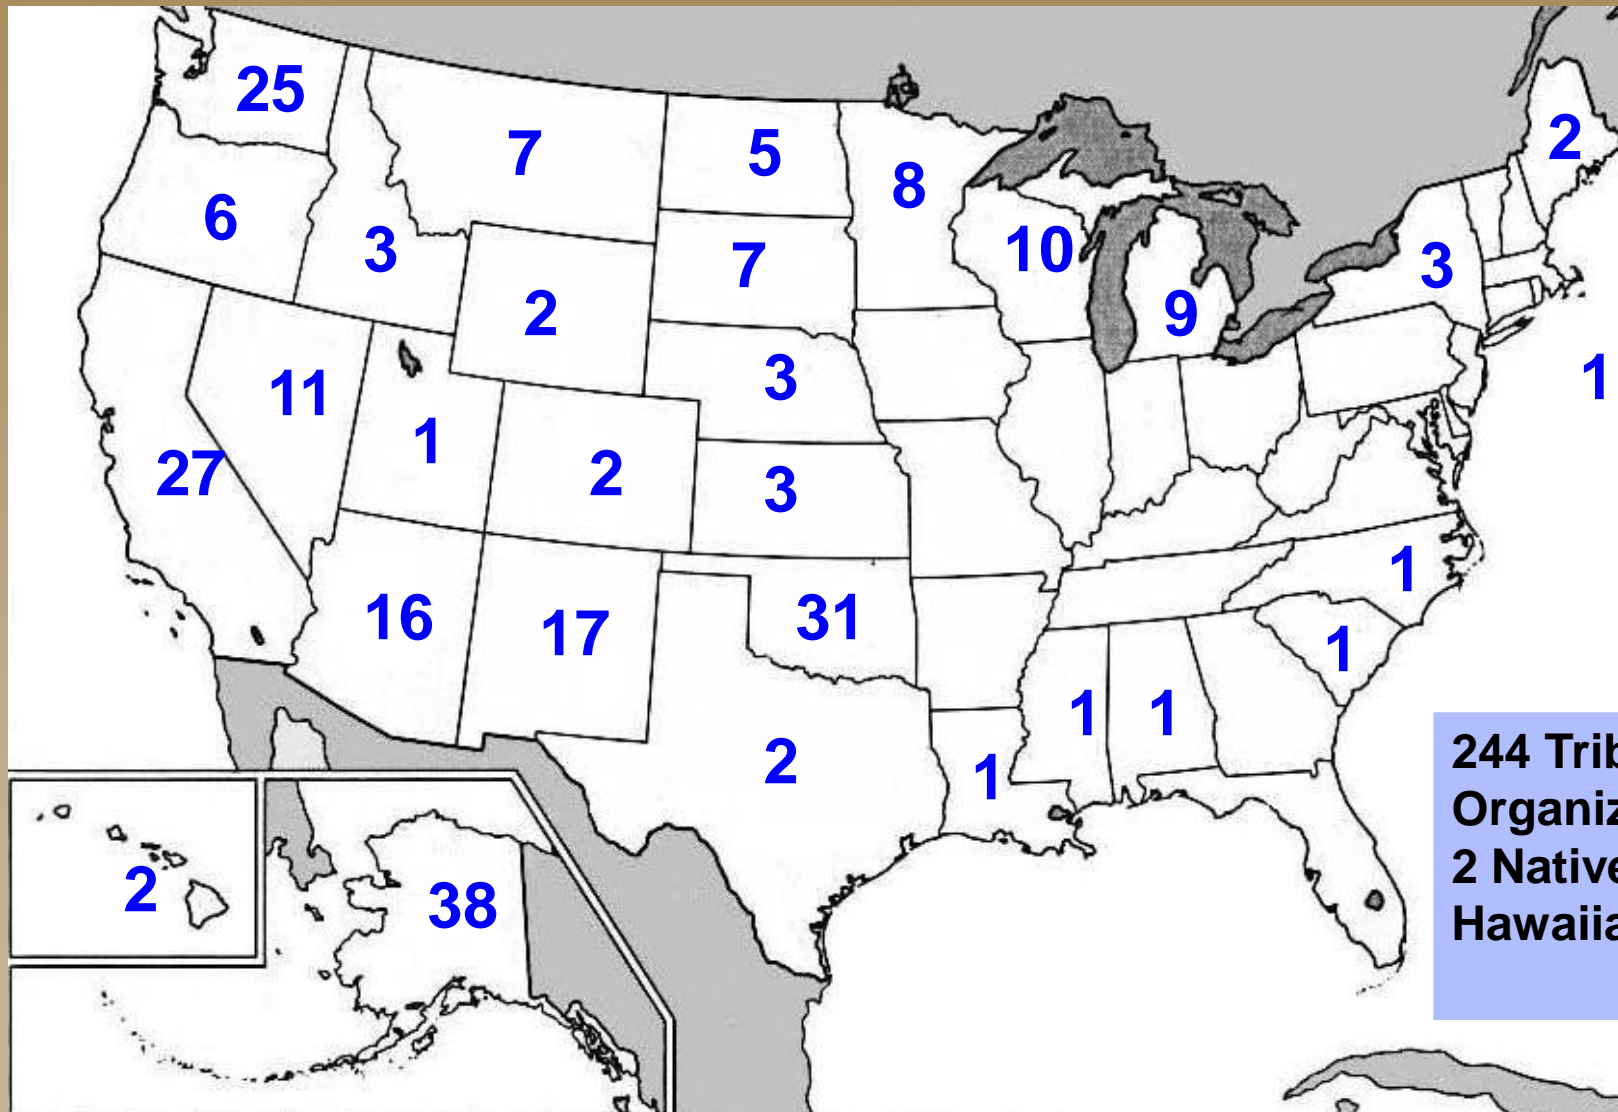

- Provide Direct Services to Elders
 - ◆ information and assistance
 - ◆ meals
 - ◆ transportation
 - ◆ case management
 - ◆ health promotion
 - ◆ in-home services
 - ◆ cultural activities

Indian Tribal Organizations (Title VI)

– Provide Caregiver Support

- ◆ information to caregivers about available services
- ◆ assistance in accessing services
- ◆ individual counseling
- ◆ support groups
- ◆ caregiver training to assist the caregiver in making decisions and solving problems relating to their caregiving roles
- ◆ respite

Title VI Grantees – 2008-2011

244 Tribal Organizations;
2 Native Hawaiians

Elder Centered Long Term Care

Available ↔ Accessible ↔ Acceptable ↔ Affordable

Acute Medical Care

Family Support

Supportive Services

Primary/Secondary
Medical Care

Chronic Disease
Management

Mental Health Care

Transportation

Skilled Nursing Care

End of Life Care

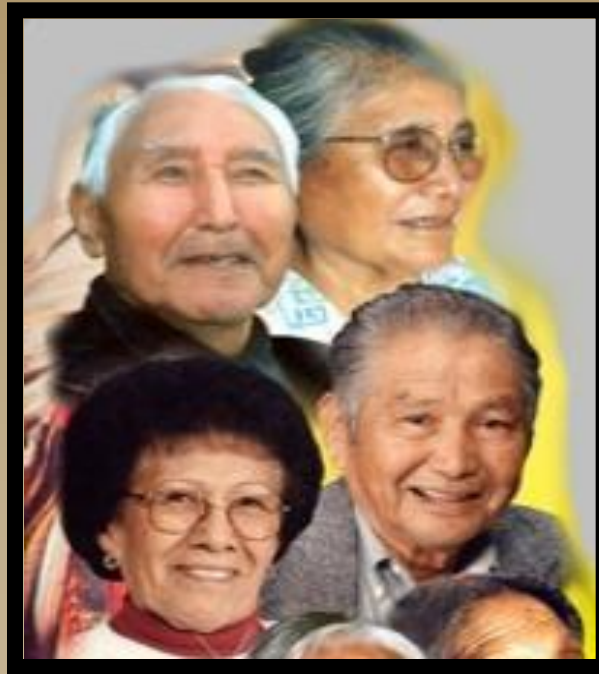

Housing

Nutrition Services

Health Promotion
Wellness

In-home Care

Assisted Living/
Adult Day Care

Title VI – Core of Non-Medical LTC

TITLE VI

Supportive Services

Information & Assistance
Outreach
Visiting

Transportation

Medical Appointments
Activities

Chronic Disease Management

Health Screenings
CD Self-Management Classes

Housing

Maintenance & Repair

Skilled Nursing Care

Visiting
Congregate Meals

Family Support

Caregiver Support
Respite

Culturally Competent Staff
Culturally Appropriate Services

End of Life Care

Visiting
Cultural Observances

Nutrition Services

Congregate Meals
Home Delivered Meals
Nutrition Screening

In-home Care

Chore
Personal Care
Wood Chopping

Health Promotion/ Wellness

Physical Activity Programs
Falls Prevention Programs
Mental Health Programs

Assisted Living/Adult Day Care

Visiting
Congregate Meals

Title VI Key Services

- ◆ Nutrition Services (97%)
- ◆ Health Promotion (94%)
- ◆ Information and Referral (93%)
- ◆ Transportation (90%)
- ◆ Health Screenings (81%)
- ◆ Family Caregiver Support (74%)
- ◆ Home Repair/Maintenance (68%)
- ◆ Chore/Homemaker Services (64%)
- ◆ Benefits Counseling (60%)
- ◆ Medication Management (57%)
- ◆ Home Health (53%)
- ◆ Care Planning (50%)

Thank you

yvonne.jackson@aoa.hhs.gov