

Partnerships Make A Difference

In each community it serves, Southeast Senior Services strives to develop collaborative partnerships and community resources to ensure quality services and to expand long term care options available.

These partnerships include:

- Local Tribal Organizations which contract with us to access and make the best use of Older Americans Act Title VI funds:
Kootznoowoo, Inc.
Craig Community Association
Hoonah Indian Association
Organized Village of Kake
Ketchikan Indian Community
Klawock Cooperative Association
Sitka Tribe of Alaska
Wrangell Cooperative Association
Yakutat Tlingit Tribe
- Housing Authorities/Facility Owners which offer space as an in-kind donation and/or at a discounted rate:
Alaska Housing Finance Corporation
City and Borough of Sitka
City of Wrangell
Diocese of Juneau
First Presbyterian Church of Skagway
Haines Borough
Ketchikan Senior Citizens Services, Inc.
Tlingit-Haida Regional Housing Authority (THRHA)

THRHA provides the facilities for our village senior centers located in Angoon, Hoonah, Kake, Klawock, and Yakutat.
- Public Transit Agencies which contract with us to operate ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) complementary paratransit services:
Center for Community (Sitka)
City and Borough of Juneau
Ketchikan Gateway Borough
We also work with the Alaska Department of Transportation and local Coordinated Transportation Coalitions to access grants so that we can meet the transportation needs of local senior citizens.
